Extra Demy Folio, Cloth, Gilt Edges, $17.50.

"Only a great publishing house like Cassell, Petter, Galpin & Co. could undertake to bring out for the use of students such an elaborate work as the splendid folio before us. It has full-page reproductions in color of paintings after Turner, Constable, De Wint, Müller, F. Walker, Mason, and others, each mounted on heavy gilt paper, which gives the pictures something of the appearance of being framed. Besides these, there are numerous fine wood engravings of well-known pictures, which, with the colored plates, heavy paper, and broad handsome pages of letterpress, go to make up a book suitable for the drawing-room as well as the studio. The instructions and advice laid down by the writer of this book are of the most sensible and practical character, and for the most part such as might well be studied with advantage by many professional artists, as well as amateurs."

"The value of the volume lies in the fact that it is not only trustworthy, but so direct in its style and lucid in its general treatment of these difficult themes, that any intelligent student can profit by its instructions. Its value and beauty are also greatly enhanced by nine full-page reproductions in color after such masters in the art of landscape as Turner, Constable, De Wint, Müller, F. Walker, and others, while throughout the pages are scattered numerous examples engraved on wood from well-known pictures."—*Christian Garden Flowers Portfolio.

A selection of forty of the finest Garden Flowers, executed in Chromo-Lithography, in the highest style. Put up in two handsome boxes, 20 in each box.
Per box, $1.50.

Wild Flower Portfolio.

A selection of forty of the finest Wild Flowers, printed in Chromo-Lithography, in the best manner. Put up in two handsome boxes. Per box, $1.50.

To decorators of all classes, who wish studies for china painting, wood or textile decorations, these plates will be specially serviceable, as both the colors and compositions are good. The iris, water-lily, sweet pea, marigold, tulip, jessamine, fuchsia, and thistle are among the more familiar plants, while there are many others less common which it would be well to introduce as a variation from the bulrush and pansy that is suggested by the mere thought of a decorative art society salesroom."—The Art Interchange.

CHINA PAINTING,

A Practical Manual for the use of Amateurs in the Decoration of Hard Porcelain. By Miss M. LOUISE McLAUGHLIN. Square 12mo. Ornamented Cover.
Price, 75 cents.

A demand which has required the issue of 10,000 copies of this work places it at the head of all books of its class.

"A more painstaking and instructive work on the subject it is impossible to wish for. We cordially accord the work our warmest praise."—British Mercantile Gazette (Birmingham).

"The little book is quite a typographical gem, both inside and out. The design of the cover is unique."
—Publishers' Weekly.

"This is described on the title-page as 'A Practical Manual,' and the promise thus put forth is carried out to the letter. The author's directions are as plain and direct as they could possibly be."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"It is an exceedingly good sign of the growth of art feeling in the United States, that one of the best manuals of china painting comes from the press of an American publisher."—Westminster Review.

"Written in a clear, careful, and very pleasant style. An acquisition to all art students."—London Art Journal.

POTTERY DECORATION.

A Practical Manual of Under-Glaze Painting. A new edition, with additions, and latest information derived from experience of author. By M. LOUISE McLAUGHLIN. Square 12mo. Price, $1.

"A long way in advance of all other text-books on the subject in the English language."—English Mechanic and World of Science.

"Noteworthy for the clearness, precision, and simplicity of its directions."—Harper's Magazine.

"The book itself, with its dainty vignettes and richly illuminated cover, is a thing of beauty."—Literary World.

"Miss McLaughlin has a faculty for conveying instruction which many more voluminous writers have not. It would be impossible for the dullest student to become confused while studying her clear and concise directions."—Boston Transcript.

"Miss McLaughlin has established for herself a worthy reputation as the first American in this country to originate a school of faience, and whatever advice she gives carries with it the weight of the authority of an expert."—Art Amateur.

"Bearing every evidence of care in its preparation."

GREEK AND ROMAN SCULPTURE.

A popular Introduction to the History of Greek and Roman Sculpture, designed to promote the Knowledge and Appreciation of the Remains of Ancient Art. By WALTER COPLAND PERRY. 1 vol., 8vo, 700 pp., with upward of 300 illustrations, engraved on wood, $12.

"The aim of the author has been to supply the first step to the student of Greek and Roman Sculpture to set before the artist the principles by which the greatest masters in the greatest period of art were guided, and the influences to which they were subjected; to furnish the inexperienced amateur with the knowledge requisite to enable him to understand and appreciate the remains of ancient plastic art in the museums of his own and foreign countries; and lastly, to direct the attention of the student of ancient history to one of the most interesting and characteristic sides of Greek life, and to show him the intimate relation between Greek art and the religious, political, and social life of the Greek people."

A NEW SERIES OF HAND-BOOKS

OF PRACTICAL ART. By HENRY B. WHEAT-LEY, F.S.A., Assistant Secretary, Society of Arts, and PHILIP HENRY DELAMOTTE, Professor of Drawing and Painting, and Lecturer on Practical Fine Art, King's College, London. Each Hand-book will be fully illustrated with colored plate and from 40 to 60 engravings, and will be carefully printed on toned paper. 8vo, cloth, $1.

1. ART-WORK IN EARTHENWARE. With colored frontispiece and 64 illustrations.

2. ART-WORK IN GOLD AND SILVER.— MEDIEVAL. With colored frontispiece and 40 illustrations.

The chief aim of this series of Hand-books of Practical Art is to bring to the notice of students and amateurs of art, as well as all lovers of the highest excellence in workmanship, numerous examples, both ancient and modern, of the application of beautiful design to articles of every-day use and to the various objects which are frequently employed for purposes of decoration.

Each Hand-book will contain an historical record of the progress of the art of which it treats, from the earliest times to the present, showing the distinctive characteristics of the respective periods; and will be illustrated with about forty to sixty engravings, which will include representations of many of the most remarkable specimens of industrial art that have been preserved to us, and which now adorn the national museums of Europe.

In making the selection, much care has been taken to include only those works that are noteworthy either for the elegance of their form or the beauty of their ornamentation; although a few objects have been chosen for their historical interest, and for the purpose of showing the style of art prevalent at the time in which they were made.
